

The Village of Oxford is holding a Virtual Town Hall Meeting to hear residents' views on the potential approval of an ordinance that will allow certain recreational marijuana business licenses in the Village's Industrial District.

WHEN: Tuesday, January 26th, 2021 at 7:00 p.m.

WHERE: Zoom Meeting Link and Call-in Details are listed on the bottom of this page and will also be Posted on the Village Website: thevillageofoxford.org

The proposed ordinance allowing marijuana businesses within the Village includes:

- Recreational (not medical) marijuana business licenses for businesses approved and regulated by the State of Michigan and the Village of Oxford
- Licenses for marijuana grower, processor, transporter, safety compliance, and retail type businesses
- Providing certain buffer zones limiting the distance between these businesses and local parks, childcare facilities, and schools
- Approval for a limited location within the area zoned for industrial use, primarily along South Glaspie Street and Industrial Drive.
